

NASW-NE Annual Conference
Friday, October 23, 2009
DC Centre, 11830 Stonegate Circle, Omaha, NE

CALL FOR PAPERS

Submission Deadline: July 1, 2009

DOING SOMETHING INTERESTING? WANT TO SHARE?

The NASW-NE's Annual Conference Committee, announces their call for papers to solicit proposals for presentation at our statewide continuing education conference.

As a presenter, you will:

- Share your knowledge, ideas and experience with your colleagues through a one hour individual presentation or ½ hour shared presentation;
- Receive maximum exposure by presenting at the statewide conference;
- Engage and enlighten social workers;
- Add a professional presentation to your vitae;
- Receive a discounted rate to the Annual Conference.

The Annual Conference Committee requests proposals that highlight practice that you are proud of which are direct service, clinical, non-clinical, policy or administration focused workshops. We are specifically looking for presentations that compliment this year's theme of "Social Work's Response to Crisis". Possible topic areas of submission would be crisis within families, the environment, mental health, the community, economics, homelessness, substance abuse, suicide, PTSD, etc. Please consider innovative ideas, approaches that provide new ways of thinking about an old issue or current trends in the topic areas.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION

Submission Process

Please complete the following items for submission:

- I. Title page can be obtained on the NASW-NE web-site, www.naswne.org
- II. Abstract & Learning Objectives
 - Submit an abstract of 50 words or less which summarizes your workshop.
 - State one or two goals of the workshop

SELECTION PROCESS

Selection Process

The selection process is a peer review process. Please do not put identifying information anywhere on the proposal except for the title page. All human service professionals are encouraged to submit papers, but social worker submissions will be given preference in the selection process. You will be notified by August 1, 2009 regarding your acceptance or our regrets.

Mail COMPLETED submissions by July 1, 2009 to:
NASW-NE • 650 'J' Street, Suite 208 • Lincoln, NE 68508

NASW-NEBRASKA CHAPTER
2009 Annual Conference
Call for Papers Application

Presentation Title _____

Presentation Length 1 Hour ½ hour each

Proposed Workshop Category

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Clinical | <input type="checkbox"/> Social Work Ethics |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Direct Care | <input type="checkbox"/> Administration/Management |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Other (Please specify) _____ | <input type="checkbox"/> Social Action/Social Policy |

Contact Information

Name & Credentials _____

Academic Degrees _____

Job Title _____

Employer _____

Work Phone _____ Fax _____ Home Phone _____

Home Address _____

Email Address _____

Brief Biography (for marketing purposes)

Abstract & Learning Objectives Included

Audiovisual equipment needed: LCD Projector Screen Microphone

Note: NASW-NE will only provide a LCD Projector, microphone and screen. You will need to provide all other AV equipment. It will also be your responsibility to provide all handouts for the presentation.

Mail COMPLETED submissions by July 1, 2009 to:
NASW-NE • 650 'J' Street, Suite 208 • Lincoln, NE 68508